

Charming Villa with seaview, pool, garden, wood

Property description

A magnificent property surrounded by ancient olive trees up on the hills of Monopoli, in the heart of Puglia, with breathtaking views on the sea.

Casa Finamore is the result of a meticulous restoration work following sustainability, that turned the farmer's house into a luxury accommodation, an exclusive place to relax and discover the pleasure of slow living. Nestled in a prime location near the region's most stunning natural and cultural attractions, this villa offers both comfort and privacy, just moments from the sea. With four spacious bedrooms in the main house and an independent trullo as a guesthouse, Finamore boasts five en-suite bedrooms in total, designed to create a retreat of refined elegance.

Balancing comfort, design and the Apulian tradition each bedroom offers elegant en suite facilities with spacious showers beyond many other services, including smart tv, air conditioning and heating. Privacy and silence are the core of Finamore slow living. All bedrooms come with dedicated outdoor terraces affording a view of the private wood or the fields surrounding the estate and, beyond, the blue Adriatic sea.

The beauty of the place is magnified by the blinding white swimming pool on the terrace, with every comfort. Access to the terrace is childproofed thanks to a dedicated gate.
